

Australian government wins plain packaging case against Philip Morris

Langue Anglais

The federal government has won its case against tobacco giant Philip Morris Asia challenging Australia's tobacco plain-packaging laws. It means the former Australian Government's plain-packaging laws, introduced in 2011, will remain in place.

The tribunal in the arbitration, based in Singapore, has issued an unanimous decision agreeing with Australia's position that it has no jurisdiction to hear Philip Morris's claim.

Download [1]McCabe Centre for Law and Cancer press release

Read more [2]

Post Date: Friday, 18 décembre, 2015

Tags: tobacco [3]

harmful marketing [4]

Category - News: Announcements

Search Keywords: tobacco, plain packaging law

Source URL: <https://ncdalliance.org/fr/node/7990>

Liens

[1] http://www.mccabecentre.org/downloads/McCabe_Centre_statement.pdf

[2] http://3pk43x313ggr4cy0lh3tctjh.wpengine.netdna-cdn.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/03/TA5_2015_WEB.pdf

[3] <https://ncdalliance.org/fr/taxonomy/term/37>

[4] <https://ncdalliance.org/fr/taxonomy/term/1583>

