Patient Solidarity Day 2014 will focus on Universal Health Coverage

Langue Undefined

Patient Solidarity Day, on 6 December 2014, will focus on efforts aligned with underlined universal health coverage [1] and raising awareness about patient-centred healthcare.

The campaign is leaded by the International Alliance of Patients' Organizations [2] (IAPO). The Morris Moses Foundation is the founder of the initiative. They launched this campaign as way of assisting suffering patients during the 2011 doctors strike and was observed by both Kenya and Uganda.
